Message from your Engagement Officer

Broadland Police and Norfolk Trading Standards are warning residents to be on their guard against cold callers. Individuals are cold calling by phone or on the doorstep in Thorpe St Andrew, Lingwood and Acle amongst others attempting to sell artwork, various domestic items or offering to do unnecessary work at an excessive price. Police have been taking positive action and if callers are found not to be in possession of a Pedlar's Certificate those responsible are interviewed, reported to court and all their items seized. Police are advising the public to call the police on 101 should a cold caller visit them and make any elderly or vulnerable relatives and neighbours aware. Trading standards advise that those who need work done should visit the Norfolk Trusted Trader website:
